In recent years, civil society is discussed as a proper partner for realizing innovations which aim to strengthen the input and output capacities of public administration. The volume discusses theoretical and methodological considerations of public administration reforms under involvement of civil society and presents case studies about the various urban policy fields that are currently objects of reform in many countries.

Matthias Freise and Andrea Walter are lecturers at the Department of Political Science at Münster University. Friedrich Paulsen is a Policy Analyst for the spokesperson for urban policies of the Social Democratic Party in the German Parliament.

The series European Civil Society is edited by Taco Brandsen, Gemma Donnelly-Cox, Matthias Freise, Michael Meyer, Filip Wijkström and Annette Zimmer.
