13 contributions not only go into the question of what is to be understood by sustainability, but also what is really behind this concept and furthermore – what is to follow all the pronouncements.

Questions of sustainability form the conceptual framework of the programme offered by the MBA School in Saarbrücken, which is illustrated by the guiding principle “people, markets and morals.”

Beyond Sustainability

Nomos
Contents

Part 1: Conceptual Frameworks and Management Perspectives 11
Towards a Generalised Darwinist View of Sustainability 13
Dermot Breslin

Sustainable Intercultural Management 36
Volker Stein

The HR-Department as Driver for Sustainability 52
Christian Scholz and Stefanie Müller

Part 2: Macroeconomic Perspectives 69
The Rule of “No-Bail-Out” in the European Monetary Union: Why it Failed to be Sustainable 71
Heinz-Jürgen Axt

Sustainability of Currency Unions: What Went Wrong in EMU and How to Fix it? 87
Ansgar Belke and Florian Verheyen

Part 3: Stakeholder Perspectives 107
The Problem of Consumer Sovereignty and the Concept of Consumer Democracy 109
Andrea Gröppel-Klein

How Sustainable is Sustainability? The Impact of Corporate Social Irresponsibility on Consumer Behaviour in Retailing 122
Hanna Schramm-Klein and Sascha Steinmann
Contents

Firm-NGO Alliances as a Proactive Approach to Credible Corporate Social Responsibility 138
Stefan Kolb and Joachim Zentes

Part 4: Functional and Sectoral Perspectives 161

Sustainability in Collaborative Supply Chains 163
Dirk Morschett and Valentin Wepfer

How IT Can Enable Sustainability Throughout Supply Chains 184
Christian Berg, Stefan Hack and Constantin Blome

Financial Reporting and Sustainability 203
Christopher Hossfeld and Alain Mikol

Sustainable Electronic Human Resources Management: Why Information Technology Matters in Sustainable Human Resources Management 220
Stefan Strohmeier

Sustainable Business Models in Health Care 245
Martin Dietrich, Nadine Molter and Matti Znotka

Index of Authors 263