Paths to Belonging

Constructing Local Identity in Banat by Means of Monuments, Cultural Heritage and Historiography
Paths to Belonging

Constructing Local Identity in Banat by Means of Monuments, Cultural Heritage and Historiography
Table of Contents

1. CULTURAL HERITAGE, MONUMENTS AND IDENTITY CONSTRUCTION 11

Evolution of “cultural heritage” and “historical monument” in Romania 13

Andreea Lazea

Monuments of Public Art and the Intercultural Dialogue. The Case of the Austrian Military Monument in Timișoara 29

Barna Bodó

A Failed Monument: Collective Memory and Identity Association in the Case of Ioan Slavici Memorial Church 49

Vasile Docea

Building a New Cultural and Artistic Identity in Timișoara in the 1960s-1970s 59

Ileana Pintilie

Digitizing Banat’s cultural heritage. Concepts and potential of a regional digitization strategy 75

Albert Weber

2. RECONSTRUCTING THE REGIONAL IDENTITY 97

Ethnic structures shaped by migration: The Serbian settlement of the Habsburg Empire until the 18th century 99

Philipp Hochbaum

Images of the City of Timișoara in Local Identity Construction 113

Simona Adam
Table of Contents

Gwénola Sebaux

Reconstructing Urban Identity within the Programme European Capital of Culture. Best practices for Timișoara 2021 following the experience of winning cities 147
Corina Turșie

3. LOCAL HISTORIOGRAPHY AS IDENTITARIAN DISCOURSES 173

The Monographic Research in the Serbian Banat 175
Mircea Măran

The Historical Monographs of Banat Germans as Identity Discourse 189
Vasile Docea

The Timișoara 1989 Case: A Turning Point in History and in Mass Media 201
Lucian-Vasile Szabo