This book presents discursive, economic and political science research agendas and analyses on the topic of austerity. This multi-perspective approach allows innovative insights into the broad range of social contexts in which austerity shapes societies.

The Editors:
Roland Sturm is Professor of Political Science at Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg.
Tim Griebel is Assistant Professor at the Institute of Political Science at Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg.
Thorsten Winkelmann is Assistant Professor at the Institute of Political Science at Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg.

Austerity: A Journey to an Unknown Territory
Discourses, Economics and Politics

Special Issue 8
Zeitschrift für Politik
Special Issue 8
Inhalt

Austerity: A Journey to an Unknown Territory
Roland Sturm/Tim Griebel/Thorsten Winkelmann ........................................ 7

Finance-Dominated Accumulation and Enduring Austerity
Bob Jessop ........................................................................................................ 29

The Cultural Political Economy of Austerity in Germany: A Corpus-Assisted Critical-Realist Discourse Analysis
Tim Griebel ......................................................................................................... 50

Who is in the Media? Dominant Interests in Times of Austerity
Sabina Monza .................................................................................................... 70

The Discourse of Austerity in the British Press
Reiner Grundmann/Kim-Sue Kreischer/Mike Scott ........................................ 92

The Austerity-Prosperity Controversy: Cutbacks Between Necessities and Fallacies
Klaus Gretschmann ............................................................................................ 129

Neither the Devil, nor a Saint – Macroeconomic, Social, and Political Implications of Fiscal Austerity in Europe between 2001 and 2015
Erik Vollmann and Wolfram Ridder ................................................................. 148

Lost highway: Implications of Austerity in Infrastructure Policies
Thorsten Winkelmann ...................................................................................... 166

Imperial Bondage: Austerity in Greece, 2008–2018
Vassilis K. Fouskas and Constantine Dimoulas ............................................. 191

The Political Consequences of Austerity in the Republic of Ireland: Domestic Choice, International Constraints and Democratic Deficits
Brian Girvin .......................................................................................................... 213

Striving for More and Falling Behind: How the Swedish Social Democratic Party Became Disadvantaged in the Party System by Institutionalized Austerity
Christoph Bruckmüller .................................................................................... 238
Austerity and the Rise of Populism in European Debtor and Creditor States

Philipp Adorf ........................................................................................................ 263

Representative Democracy in Times of Austerity: New Challenges in the EU Multi-level System

Claudia Wiesner .................................................................................................... 287

List of contributors .................................................................................................. 305