Populism, Protest, and New Forms of Political Organisation

Nomos

This series publishes contributions to populism research and encompasses a wide range of theoretical, intellectual-historical, and empirical approaches. In addition to publications documenting the workshops and conferences of the DVPW Populism Group, the series features monographs, edited volumes, and academic essays that reflect the entire spectrum of the growing field of populism research. Authors can submit complete manuscripts or short abstracts with an outline and timetable to populismus@dvpw.de. Manuscript submissions undergo an internal review process conducted by the series editors and the advisory board.

Acknowledgments

This volume is based on the international conference “Populism, Protest, and New Forms of Political Organisation: Ten Years after the Movements of the Squares”, which took place at the Freie Universität Berlin in September 2021. We are grateful for financial support from the German Research Foundation (DFG) and the Center for International Cooperation (CIC) at the Freie Universität Berlin, which made it possible for a large contingent of participants to travel to what was for many the first in-person conference since the onset of COVID-19. We would like to sincerely thank the Ernst-Reuter-Gesellschaft der Freunde, Förderer und Ehemaligen der Freien Universität Berlin e.V. (an association of friends, donors, and alumni of the Freie Universität Berlin) for its financial support toward the publication of this volume.
